

CONFERENCE

What is an appropriate (re)use for a church?

20 October 2018; 10:00-16:00

Keynote lecture:

Professor William Whyte (St John's College, Oxford)

Unlocking the Church: twenty-first century dilemmas

Other papers:

Marcus van der Meulen (Ecclesiastical Heritage Centre, Brussels)

New uses of historic churches: recent developments in Ghent

Molly Miller (University of Edinburgh)

Heritage and Community in Grassroots Church Reuse Projects in Scotland

Dr Clare Haynes (UEA)

A "serious house on serious earth...that much never can be obsolete": the case of St Peter Hungate and the potential of the redundant church

Geoffrey Hunter (Diocese of Ely)

Re-imagining the English country church: the case of Thorpe Market church

At: St Martin-at-Palace Church, Norwich, NR3 1RW

Cost: £40.00 (£35.00 concessions); includes tea/coffee and sandwich lunch

Booking:

online at <https://www.nhct-norwich.org/cpcs/>

or by post to CPCS, St Martin-at-Palace Church, Norwich, NR3 1RW

(cheques payable to CPCS)